COMMUNITY NEWS

PEORIA AREA COMMUNITY FESTIVAL OF NATIVITIES

November 30th - December 3rd

The Peoria Area Community Festival of Nativities displays over 750 nativities from around the world, with live music and a live nativity. This year's display will include the St. Mary's Cathedral nativity, the Rolan Johnson ornaments and artwork, and a Fontanini display with over 2,000 pieces. It is truly a unique interfaith exhibit with one hope in mind: to provide a peaceful place for individuals and families to reflect upon Christ's sacred birth as they usher in the Christmas season.

St. Vincent de Paul is again co-sponsoring.

How can you get involved? Include your nativities in the display, help during set-up or take-down, or host during the event. Register your nativity at www.communityfestivalofnativities.com/get-involved.

Hosting is a great way for 8th-graders to receive service hours.

Contact Lori Kemp at 309-657-3397 or Peggie Sanders at 309-643-0718 to help with set-up or take-down or to sign up for hosting.
